

2021 AASM Foundation Sleep Champion Award

The Sleep Champion Award celebrates successful community-based sleep health services that provide best-in-class care and/or education.

Funding Information

The Sleep Champion Award provides:

- $5,000 in funds to support sleep health and/or education services.
- Complimentary registration for a representative to attend the SLEEP 2021 Virtual Meeting.

Eligibility

- Only AASM individual or facility members are eligible to nominate an organization for the Sleep Champion Award.
- Nominated organizations must be non-profit organizations.
- Previous recipients of the Sleep Champion Award are not eligible.
- Current AASM Foundation Board of Directors members are not eligible to nominate organizations.

Award Process

Step 1: Complete Sleep Champion Nomination Form

An AASM individual or facility member must fill out a Sleep Champion Nomination Form.

Step 2: Write a Nomination Letter

Nomination letters must include the following:

- A summary of how the non-profit organization is providing best-in-class care and/or education that should be celebrated and replicated by other community-based programs.
- At least two examples that depict how the non-profit organization's programs are working to achieve the AASM Foundation's vision for society and field of sleep medicine; healthier lives through better sleep.
- If multiple individuals would like to nominate the same organization, they may either submit individual nominations or a single nomination letter may be signed by multiple individuals.

Formatting Requirements:

- Letters are limited to no more than 2 pages of narrative and content as a Word document or PDF file.

Step 3: Submit Sleep Champion Nomination Form and Nomination Letter

The completed Sleep Champion Award Nomination Form and Nomination Letter(s) should be emailed to SleepChampion@aasm.org by Monday, February 15, 2021.

Award Notification

Award recipients will be announced by April 30, 2021.
